MALBEC 2009

100% Malbec

The Eolo vineyard was planted in 1912 in Luján de Cuyo, one of the oldest regions for winegrowing in Mendoza; renowned worldwide as the terroir that produces the finest Malbec.

The 2009 Eolo is a deep, crimson red in color, with violet reflections revealing the rich texture of this 100% Malbec. Primary aromas of dark plum and cherries, with floral hints of violets, unfold elegantly on the nose, followed by subtle notes of tobacco, cinnamon and vanilla from the extended aging in French oak. The mouth feel is full-bodied and smooth, displaying a perfect balance of structure, acidity and tannin.
